NATIONAL Pet Month

◆ As the weather warms and the rain dries up, you and your furry companion will want to spend more time outside together.

- ◆ Take an opportunity to learn about exotic creatures at the local zoo! OR go on a walk to enjoy the local wildlife.
- ◆ Set time aside to entertain and play with your pet - this is a small sacrifice for their happiness!
- ◆ May is a great excuse to spoil your pets (like you need one).
